

The system allows students and faculty to log in using their login ID and password and by checking the user role stored in the database, based on that it will provide student or faculty dashboard.

ON student Side:

The system stores and displays basic student details.

The system shows the student's CGPA and number of backlogs.

The system allows students to view subject-wise and overall attendance.

The system allows students to view marks of minor, mid, and end exams along with grades.

The system displays simple CGPA performance graphs.

The system shows department-wise rank of students.

The system allows students to send doubts or messages to faculty.

FACULTY :

The system allows faculty to view and reply to student messages.

The system allows faculty to upload and update daily attendance.

The system allows faculty to upload and update student marks.

The system allows faculty to assign grades to students

// ADDITIONAL it also provides alumni details, (some basic details such as name, department, where they are placed ..) and their LinkedIn profile link so that students can easily connect with them.